

“HOMESTEAD HOW-TO”

Saturday, April 16

A. W. Perry Homestead Museum

1509 N. Perry Road, Carrollton

Workshops* 9am-Noon

9-9:45am Homestead Garden Planting Guide

What to plant when and how, emphasis on raised bed gardens.

Presenter: Stephen Hudkins, Texas A&M AgriLife Extension Service Horticulture Agent, Class #113400-01

10-10:45am Urban Chickens in the Garden

Did you know Carrollton now allows backyard chicken coops? Find out how to care for urban chickens.

Presenter: Jeff Raska, Texas A&M AgriLife Extension Service Urban Chicken Specialist, Class #113400-02

11-11:45am Food Safety Basics for a Healthier You!

Check, Clean, Rinse, Separate, Chill, Throw Away, Storing.

Presenter: Abeer Zein, Program Assistant, Texas A&M AgriLife Extension Service Better Living for Texans, Class #113400-03

*Pre-registration required for workshops, $5 each, all three for $15.

Ages 16+ Register online at www.cityofcarrollton.com/webtrac or call 972-466-6380 for more information.

Free Activities 10am-1pm

- Community Experts, consult with representatives from Dallas County Master Gardeners & Master Naturalists, Carrollton Community Gardens, Beekeepers, etc.
- Better Living for Texans, learn how to help stretch your family's food budget, plan meals for a healthier family, and even how to keep pests out of the pantry! Presented by Texas A&M AgriLife Extension Service
- Family Fun arts & crafts area, make a wildflower seed ball for planting in the fall, & a barnyard petting zoo!
- Tours of the Perry Homestead, a Texas Historic Landmark.

For more information: 972-466-6380

www.cityofcarrollton.com/museum

