- 1. Call the Meeting to Order: 7:00pm by Ms. Scamardo
- 2. Approve Previous Minutes of July 27, 2021
 - a. Motion to approve by Ms. Grozier, Second by Mrs. Tribble. Minutes are unanimously approved by committee.
- 3. City of Carrollton Historical Marker Presentation
 - a. Mrs. Tribble details the committee gathered information on all the historic markers located in the City of Carrollton. That information was then sent to Mr. Scallions to put together a presentation that included the following information: location of marker, condition of markers, information of all markers, and lastly if the marker is a city, state, or local marker. Mr. Scallions presents the collaborative information to the board.
- 4. City of Carrollton Historic Markers Discussion
 - a. The committee discusses upkeep of the markers, detailing how markers should be visible and clean. Committee determined they would find information on how to properly clean markers as to limit any further wear and destruction to each marker and establish a volunteer day for the community to assist in cleaning historical markers.
- 5. Living History at Museum Presentation
 - a. Mr. Scallions presents to the committee living history ideas compiled by committee members. Ideas included: butter churning, rag doll making, living history actors, and whirly gig crafts. These ideas were designed as easy and interactive activities to engage school groups and museum program/event participants in historical activities.
- 6. Living History at Museum Discussion
 - a. Committee members discuss the best activities to include for participants and how to acquire resources for any crafts or living history ideas. Committee members asked Mr. Scallions to obtain a supply list that would then be turned in to Ms. Scamardo who would then send to committee members so they could ask the community for donations.

7. Adjournment

Motion to adjourn by Ms. Grozier, seconded by Ms. Lewis. Adjournment by Ms. Scamardo at 8:05pm.
